Get that southern feeling at the NAPA Grill

Château Bonne Entente

Quebec City, June 1, 2009 – Located on the spacious grounds of the Château Bonne Entente, the NAPA Grill, that most Californian of Quebec City terraces, will be turning up the heat tomorrow for its official opening.

There are very few terraces in Quebec City that are bathed in sunlight from sunrise to sunset. Imagine a terrace with that southern feeling right downtown, in paradisiacal surroundings with no eye or ear pollution. All that's missing are palm trees and the sound of the ocean to complete the picture. In the heart of this green oasis of plants and water, let yourself be seduced by the delicious scents wafting from the rotisserie and the grill where the chefs are busy, the sultry music, the bright cocktails, the sumptuous pool, the river-shaped spa and the alluring ambiance that invite you to moments of languid splendour, sensual delight.

Under the eye of renowned Executive Chef, Marie-Chantal Lepage, NAPA's chefs Gaby Lamontagne and Laurent Brun lure your taste buds with a tempting menu - calamari salad, a "Hot Wave" of grilled seafood, grilled lobster, whole quarter lamb. From lunch through the cocktail hour to supper, the NAPA Grill glows with the exotic, the elegant.

The terrace at NAPA offers 60 seats near the pool and spa and 40 more on the veranda of the Monte Cristo. NAPA's kitchen is open from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. while the cocktail bar welcomes you from 1:30 p.m. until closing. If the evening is cool, the many heat-diffusing lamps keep you nice and warm.

The NAPA Grill... a shimmering wave of delights, ecstasy and pleasures!
